The polemic regarding the revision of the law regarding regional elections is the main issue in Indonesia's democratic process this week. On August 20 2024, the Constitutional Court (MK) decided to cancel the threshold provisions for regional head nominations and change the age requirement for candidates which must be taken into account from the time the General Election Commission (KPU) determines it, not from the inauguration. (Yuniarto, 2024). The Constitutional Court also rejected the lawsuit to change the minimum age requirements in the Regional Election Law through Constitutional Court Decision Number 70/PUU-XXII/2024. Based on this, for the Constitutional Court, the minimum age for candidates for governor and deputy governor is 30 years and 25 years for candidates for regent and deputy regent, as well as candidates for mayor and deputy mayor, including regional head candidates. determined. On August 21 2024. Researchers want to know how the polemic occurred regarding the revision of the 2024 Regional Election Law by the DPR.
