

ABSTRACT

Muhammad Hanif Husyairi (2017101021)

THE ROLE OF ARCHITECTS AS A PROBLEMS SOLVER IN RESIDENTIAL PLANNING

For 3 months, the practitioner carried out professional work with the Ananta Mitra Selaras team, who practiced helping in the management of the bureau, including publishing projects that had not, currently, or had already been awakened to the public with other colleagues, became a graphic design for presentation purposes, company company profiles, portfolios, and name card. In addition, the practitioner also plays a role in developing designs as well as field visits to several projects that will be developed. working on work drawings using SketchUp, CAD, and also rendering using Lumion software in several projects that are being carried out, namely renovating one of the residences in the Cimanggis Depok area, becoming one of the teams in developing a contracted project in the Cinere area, and being involved in conceptualizing and executing the PT portfolio Ananta Mitra Selaras.

Keywords: Problem solver, design developing, graphic