

ABSTRACT

Nindi Anggita Febriani (2019041059)

WORK PROCESS OF REPORTERS IN THE NEWS PRODUCTION DIVISION AT BAZNAS TV

While carrying out professional work at the National Television Amil Zakat Agency (BAZNAS TV), the intern is placed in the position of reporter. On this occasion the intern was involved in the entire process of making daily news. To produce a story requires several stages, in accordance with the Television News Production course which begins with the process of finding information about various coverage agendas through research by contacting other them contacts, after obtaining various proposed agendas they will be submitted to the Senior Officer for approval, then the coverage will be can take place to the intended location by interviewing sources to obtain factual and reliable information. The news presented by BAZNAS. during a period of approximately 3 months the intern carried out professional work, the intern gained various experiences such as making good news scripts using effective sentences and speaking neat language and the intern went into the field to process news coverage to the intended location to obtain data and facts for scripting. in this professional work, the intern can implement the lessons learned in lectures in the world of work according to their potential.

Keywords : Reporter, Coverage, Interview, News Writing.