

ABSTRACT

Ahmad Azka (2015101044)

PENTINGNYA KONSEP DESAIN INTERIOR PADA SEBUAH PROYEK INTERIOR PT. PRTYHVI, MALANG DAN VILLA SULTAN, BATU

During the implementation of professional work of practition in the studio TADIDO Studio, practition placed as an assistant to the Architect who asked for help Senior Architect work. Senior Architect, practition participated in several interior design projects, additional furniture in this agency. In the execution of work, practition instructed to design 3D images from outside, interior, and furniture. Practition also create working drawings from the project. In designing, praktikan faced with the concept of space, materials, and furniture sizes. In the process of designing the practition design is always faced with a revision process, which this process also makes praktikan learn to understand errors during designing in a project. No less important, practice at this institution while studying together With the presence of this professional work activity, praktikan gain a lot of experience and knowledge in the field of exterior, interior design, as well as furniture.

Keywords: design interior, office furniture, , tropical house and modern minimalis