ANALYSIS OF PER BANK STATUS REPORTS IN THE REVIEW OF BANKING RESTRUCTURING POLICIES BY BPPN

The Deposit Insurance Agency is an independent agency that operates as a deposit guarantee agency for banks domiciled in Indonesia. While carrying out professional work, interns are placed in the Banking Restructuring Program Operational Support Group, with the duties and obligations of forming and formulating policies for preventing and handling bank crises in Indonesia. In their duties, the Practitioner carries out tasks to assist in the analysis of recap reports per bank, including reports on Assets, Capital, Debt, Investment, and bank crisis resolution programs.
