IMPLEMENTATION OF THE WORK OF MEMBERS OF THE GERINDRA FRACTION AT COMMISSION I OF THE DPR-RI

Commission I of the DPR-RI is one of the tools of the House of Representatives (DPR) with tasks in the scope of defense, foreign affairs, communications and informatics, and intelligence. Practitioners get the opportunity to do professional work, as well as want to know how the flow of communication occurs within the scope of the Indonesian House of Representatives, especially on Commission I of the Gerindra Party Faction. The scope of tasks carried out by the practitioner includes producing articles related to communication, as well as making seminar materials. During approximately 3 (three) months of professional work, the practitioner can understand the communication system that occurs in Commission I of the Gerindra Party Faction, both internally and externally. Externally, Commission I of the Gerindra Party Faction can establish good relations with the public through media coverage, and also establish relations with media colleagues regarding news coverage.
